

New Way to Make Apple Dumplings

Served With Hard Sauce or Cream and Sugar

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

Here is a new way to make apple dumplings that will surely please every housewife, for it is not necessary to have whole apples, and the juice cannot run out and burn as with apple dumplings where the apple is placed in the center and the dough turned around it. The best of the apple, a crisp shell that holds the apples and juice.

K C Apple Dumpling

One and one-half cups sifted flour; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 3 level teaspoons K C Baking Powder; 1/4 cup shortening; about 1/4 cup milk; apples.

Fill the cups of a buttered muffin pan with pared and sliced apples, sprinkle with salt and turn two or three tablespoons of water into each cup. Sift together, three times, the flour, salt and baking powder; work in the shortening, and mix to a soft dough with the milk. Drop the dough from a spoon with the apples in the cups, giving it a smooth exterior. Let bake about twenty-five minutes. Invert the pan on a large serving dish. Put a spoonful of hard sauce above the apple in each dumpling and finish with a grating of nutmeg.

This is one of the many new, delicious and practical recipes contained in the K C Cook's Book, which may be obtained, free by sending the colored certificate, packed in every 2-cent can of K C Baking Powder to the K C Baking Powder Co., Chicago. Be sure to get the 2-cent certificate; smaller ones do not contain Cook's Book certificates.

No Cause for Hilarity. Sweet potatoes are exposed to the attacks of a dozen serious insects, says an exchange. We see nothing to laugh at either.

PEORIA LOBBERS' KINDLY INTEREST

Fischer Bros. Dry Goods Company is the name of a large importing and jobbing house in Peoria, Illinois. We have had several letters from them within the past two years asking for literature for their friends. Curiosity prompted us to write and ask the cause of their particular interest. Their reply is as follows:

"A friend of ours, who was representing one of the leading notion houses of New York, was so sick with Bright's Disease that he was obliged to give up his traveling duties. His weight was reduced from a hundred and eighty-five to a hundred and twenty-five pounds. He was in a critical condition and did not expect to live longer than six months. He accidentally heard of the Renal Compound and commenced to use it. He was surprised to meet him a year later apparently a cured man. At any rate he was his former self, had regained his lost weight and was enjoying the best of health. We were personally acquainted with this case and your Renal Compound had interested in your Renal Compound and we have written at different times for your literature to hand to some of our friends."

Meanwhile there are patients dying in the hospitals who are given no chance to save their lives. Physicians do not have to change their treatment—simply and Fulton's Renal Compound to the next treatment, etc. They are already giving. There is no conflict. It reduces the renal obstruction. There is then hope, but none without it.

Whether he knows it or not every one who has had kidney trouble over six months is in dangerous ground. Kelly & Pollard, wholesale and retail agents.

The first part of the afternoon was spent in the discussion of the business affairs, then a short musical program was rendered. Eight old fashioned songs were sung by women's quartets and Miss Jones read "The Seven Dials," and "The Modern George Washington."

An amusing contest of the ringing of a number of bells was played and Mrs. Hitchens succeeded in ringing the most. Refreshments of coffee and cake were served by the committee in charge who were Mesdames J. R. Fink, E. N. Riggs, E. Nold, Misses Mayhew and Phyllis Eickman assisted the hostesses. An enjoyable afternoon was spent.

The East El Paso Presbyterian church entertained with a "confusion of voices" on Friday evening. The program was most enjoyable and a large number of guests and members were in attendance. The following program was given, which was supplemented by several impromptu selections.
